A BICENTENNIAL COMMENCEMENT

Art Buchwald, internationally known humorist and columnist, will be the graduation speaker at Gallaudet's 112th commencement exercises which will be held on Monday, May 17, at the National Shrine of the Immaculate Conception. Buchwald, who it is rumored will appear in Bicentennial costume, will also receive an honorary degree. The ceremonies will get underway at 10:30 a.m.

Continuing a Gallaudet tradition, the 164 graduating seniors will receive their degrees from their local Congressman or embassy representative. Masters degrees will also be awarded to 57 graduate students.

Each year the College presents honorary degrees to several outstanding individuals. This year Gallaudet will recognize Senator Jennings Randolph of West Virginia for his work on the Senate Committee on Education and Labor in support of handicapped persons and Roy L. Holcomb, superintendent of the Sterck School for the Hearing Impaired in Newark, Delaware, and a nationally known figure in the field of education of deaf children.

A breakfast for the graduates and their families will precede the commencement exercises.
